Listening

Say: Look at the picture as you listen to a story. The story is called "Emma Does Chores." It is about a girl who helps her grandma with chores, or jobs, so she can earn money to buy something special. After listening to the story, you will answer some questions.

Emma Does Chores

Emma hurried into her grandma's kitchen. She held up a page she had ripped from the toy catalog. "What's this?" Grandma asked.

"It's a toy that I want," Emma said. "Some of the kids at school said they earn money by doing chores. Do you need help around the house today?"

Grandma smiled and said, "Yes. I could use some help, and I'll be glad to pay you."

Grandma gave Emma a list of chores. It included sweeping the floors, dusting, and folding clothes. Emma moved from room to room, keeping busy until she had checked all but one thing off the list.

The clothes were in the basement. Emma did not like going down there. It was too dark. She looked at the page from the catalog again. Folding the clothes would give her enough to buy the toy dog. She took a big breath and ran down the steps. She filled up a basket with clean clothes and ran up the steps. Then, she folded the clothes in the kitchen and checked that off the list.

Grandma handed Emma the money she had earned. "Thank you, Grandma. Now, can we go to the toy store?" Emma asked.
