Listening

Say: Look at the picture as you listen to a story. The story is called "The Lion and the Mouse." It is about a tiny mouse that woke up a big lion. After listening to the story, you will answer some questions.

The Lion and the Mouse

All day long, a mouse ran back and forth in the forest. He gathered food to eat and grass to make his bed warm.

One day, he ran over a rock. Or he thought it was a rock. He was wrong! It was the nose of a lion, who was fast asleep.

The lion felt the mouse and jumped up! He roared and roared. "You woke me up!" yelled the lion. With one swoop of his paw, the lion scooped up the mouse.

"STOP!" cried the mouse. "I didn't mean to wake you! Please let me go. I will pay you back by helping you one day."

The lion laughed. "What could you do for me?" he said. "For that joke, I will set you free."

He set the mouse free. The very happy mouse ran away. A week later, the lion was walking in the forest. Suddenly, he was caught in a trap! A net fell over him. He roared and roared.

The mouse was walking by. When he heard the lion's roar, he ran there as fast as he could. "I will help you!" he cried.

Then he chewed, and he chomped. Finally, he pulled the net apart. The lion was free!

Since that day, the lion and the mouse have been the best of friends.
