The structured format of a RethinkEd Social and Emotional Learning (SEL) lesson is divided into three core time-based components: Learn, Practice, and Dive Deeper.

Lesson Structure Breakdown:

- Learn:
  - Introduction to the core SEL concept or skill.
  - Includes a short student video.
  - Guided discussion question.
- Practice:
  - Active student engagement with the concept.
  - Application tasks or interactive exercises.
- Dive Deeper:
  - Extended follow-up activity.
  - Opportunities for journaling, writing prompts, or deeper reflection.

RethinkEd's Social Emotional Learning Classroom Rating Scale provides a means of quickly and easily assessing the social-emotional learning skills of each student in a class through a simple 8-question assessment.

Please complete the Social Emotional Learning Classroom Rating Scale by September 25, 2026 to serve as a baseline.

Please complete the Social Emotional Learning Classroom Rating Scale again at the end of MP1, by November 6, 2026.
